

Skier triggered slab on NW aspect, 8400ft in southern Madison Range. From e-mail: "Skier ski cut top of slope with extra caution, second ski cut, the slope peeled out wall to wall and ran the full length of the gully. Crown depth 35-50cms, ran on older sun/wind crust... High consequence terrain."

Advisory Region
Southern Madison
Southern Madison, 2017-03-06