

Crown of an avalanche triggered by a group on Beehive Peak on Saturday (4/1) at about 11am. The crown was between 12" and 48" and propagated about 75 feet. It broke directly under the climbers' feet and they were able to step off of it.

Advisory Region
Northern Madison
Northern Madison, 2017-04-01